ARIZONA @ WORK TO HAVE PRESENCE AT LIBRARY

Arizona@Work is a statewide workforce development network that helps job seekers throughout the state by providing services and resources to pursue employment opportunities. They also help employers of all sizes and types recruit, develop and retain the best employees for their needs. Arizona@Work will be at the CQ Library every 1st and 3rd Wednesday, starting August 3, from 10-4 in the YA Room. Drop in to get help writing a resume, searching for a job, or preparing for an interview! No appointment needed!

The 6th Annual Altered Books Show and Silent Auction will take place on Saturday, August 27 from 5-8 PM at the Central School. If you are submitting pieces, the drop-off day is Thursday, August 25 between 12-5 PM at the Central School. Proceeds from the show benefit the Friends of the Copper Queen Library who help support the CQ Library. Over the last year, the Friends have purchased new computers, books, children’s furniture, and a new projector and laptop for the meeting room. They have also given money and time to support programming events, like the Second Tuesday Movies at the Bisbee Royale, the Summer Reading Program, Pre-School Reading Hour, and Arizona Humanities Presentations.

Join the Library as we host our first FRANK Talks Discussion: War, Liberty & Law: The U.S. Constitution and Crisis. FRANK Talks are free, thought-provoking, expert-facilitated discussions on important issues facing our communities produced in partnership with Arizona Humanities and the Arizona State Library, Archives & Public Records. Facilitated by Dr. T.J. Davis, Arizona State University, School of Historical, Philosophical and Religious Studies, this discussion will try to answer questions like, “How do we strike a balance between liberty and security?” and “Does the end justify the means, or can the government’s tactics violate privacy and freedom?” Join the discussion on Tuesday, August 16 at 5:30 in the CQ Meeting Room.

LIBRARY OFFERS QI GONG CLASS

Starting on Wednesday, August 3, Bisbee local Yotaki, a certified Qi Gong instructor, will lead a weekly Qi Gong class in the CQ Meeting Room from 10 – 11 AM. Qi Gong, meaning moving energy, is gentle exercise composed of movements both internal and external. This movement, which has been practiced for centuries in China, has been used to reduce stress and enhance health and well-being. Classes are free and registration is required. Forms are available at the Circulation Desk.

ADULT SUMMER READING BOOK DISCUSSION

Tuesday, August 23 at 5:30 in CQ Meeting Room
Join us for a discussion of As I Lay Dying, William Faulkner’s harrowing account of the Bundren family’s odyssey across the Mississippi countryside to bury Addie, their wife and mother. Books are available at the Circulation Desk.
