ROYALE MOVIE

WED - MARCH 13

Oscar Winner for Best Picture! When Tony Lip (Mortensen), a bouncer from an Italian-American neighborhood in the Bronx, is hired to drive Dr. Don Shirley (Ali), a world-class Black pianist, on a concert tour from Manhattan to the Deep South, they must rely on "The Green Book" to guide them to the few establishments that were then safe for African-Americans. Confronted with racism, danger-as well as unexpected humanity and humor-they are forced to set aside differences to survive and thrive on the journey of a lifetime.

Rated: PG-13

Runtime: 130 minutes

Doors: 5 PM | Film 6 PM

Monday, March 11 | 1 – 3 PM | PG

A House with a Clock in Its Walls -- The magical adventure tells the spine-tingling tale of 10-year-old Lewis who goes to live with his uncle in a creaky old house with a mysterious tick-tocking heart. But his new town's sleepy façade jolts to life with a secret world of warlocks and witches.

Thursday, March 14 | 1 – 3 PM | PG

Jack and the Cuckoo-Clock Heart -- Edinburgh, late 19th century. Little Jack is born on a day so cold that his heart remains frozen. Madeleine the midwife replaces his heart with a cuckoo-clock. It will work, as long as Jack follows the rules, mainly not falling in love. But his encounter with a fiery-eyed girl singing on a street corner and his decision to chase after her will test the resistance of his makeshift heart to the breaking point.

Friday, March 15 | 1 – 3 PM | PG-13

The Hate U Give -- Starr Carter is constantly switching between two worlds: the poor, mostly black, neighborhood where she lives and the rich, mostly white, prep school she attends. The uneasy balance between these worlds is shattered when Starr witnesses the fatal shooting of her childhood best friend Khalil at the hands of a police officer. Now, facing pressures from all sides of the community, Starr must find her voice and stand up for what's right.

Saturday, March 16 | 12 – 2 PM | PG

The Boy and the World -- An amazing Brazilian animation that truly exemplifies the power of imagery and music as a combination that has more than enough to portray a powerful and deep message. It shows an adventurous quest that illustrates the issues of the modern world through the eyes of a child.

CHILDRENS BOOK AWARDS: CALDECOTT & NEWBERY

The American Library Association announced the winners of the Caldecott and Newbery Awards for excellence in children's literature. The Randolph Caldecott Medal, which honors the most distinguished picture book for children, went to illustrator Sophie Blackall for Hello Lighthouse and the John Newbery Medal, which honors the most outstanding contribution to children's literature, went to Meg Medina for Merci Suarez Changes Gears which tackles the complexity of navigating a multicultural identity amidst changing family dynamics. Check out these award winners as well as other nominees in the Children's Library.

The Library will be at the Tenth Annual Make Youth Arts Festival which provides immersive arts experiences to local children and their families, all free of charge. A wide range of activities are taught by locally-based creative professionals. These include workshops in various visual arts media, writing, theater, dance, film, etc., as well as performance opportunities. Join us and create your own bookmark to show your love of both art and reading! We will also have activities for our younger participants that will encourage literacy will having fun creating art.
