PARTNER DANCING | THURSDAYS

Beginning Thursday, June 8, Montique Eaton and Caitlin Strachan will teach the fundamentals of partner dancing: rhythm, posture and roles. Bring a partner or come alone, as the class will rotate partners. The class is free with registration. Time: 4 – 5 PM | Place: CQ Meeting Room.

EDGAR AWARDS

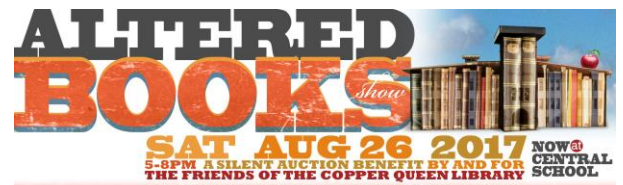

The Edgar Allen Poe Award, presented annually by the Mystery Writers of America, was awarded last month for the best in mystery and suspense fiction. The award went to Noah Hawley for Before the Fall, which follows the fate of two survivors of a plane wreck. Others on the list include Alafair Burke's The Ex and Lyndsay Faye's Jane Steele. Check them out today, and other Edgar Winners from past years, at the Copper Queen Library.

DEPORTATION CENTENNIAL

July 17th marks the 100th anniversary of the Bisbee Deportation. Join us all through the month of June and July for special events here at the library, including presentations by Mike Anderson, Glen Minuth, Charles Bethea, Amanda Hetro, and Becky Orozco. We will also be discussing the book Bisbee '17, which chronicles the deportation, with author Robert Houston. Stayed tuned for other events that will happening around town, including the Bisbee Mining and Historical Museum, Central School Project, the Bisbee Royale and the Bisbee Restoration Museum.

CALL TO ARTISTS

The Friends of the Copper Queen Library are calling all artists to create and submit pieces for the upcoming 7th Annual Altered Books Show. You may submit up to three pieces, and all pieces must include a book element. Drop off day is Thursday, August 24 from 11 – 5 at Central School Project. Entry forms are located at the CQ Library Circulation Desk. Questions? Call (520) 732-9848 or email jkcwrite@yahoo.com
